Students will have to undertake project work and submit a report as a part of their course on Financial Literacy and Banking. A few topics are suggested below, but students may take other topics of their choice relevant to the course in consultation with the course instructor.

- a) Influence of age and educational qualification on the financial literacy level.
- b) Impact of Digital Banking Initiatives on Financial Inclusio.
- c) Impact of Behavioural Biases on Financial Decision Making.
- d) Financial Literacy among Different Social Groups.
- e) Digital Banking Trends and Customer Experience.
- f) Comparative Analysis of Public Sector Banks vs. Private Sector Banks.

The project work and subsequent report submission should be the original work of the student and submitted both in hard and in MS Word. The size of the paper will be A4, and the font will be Times New Roman. The font size will be 12 with a line spacing of 1.5. There will be a cover page mentioning the title of the report, followed by a declaration of the candidate, content, list of tables, list of figures, abbreviation, chapters, annexure (if required), and references. The write-up should be at least 10,000 (ten thousand) words or around 40 pages.

Students have to follow the above mentioned format otherwise you can not submit your assignment. At the time of the submission you need to explain your findings from the assignment.
