NOTICE

August and September internal attendance 2025

This is to notify all third and fifth semester Hons & MDC B.Com. students that their subject teachers have forwarded the PDF file of August and September Internals Evaluation Attendance of those students who had attended the internals. Students who missed the August and September internals are required to attend the November internal otherwise, they will not receive any internal grades. To receive good internal grades, other students who attended August or September internals must also attend. The final internal marks will be calculated by averaging the three internals from August, September, and November. Because of its large size, the file was unable to upload in the college website.
