To ensure an effective academic environment it feels necessary to streamline the admission process . Because maintaining a fair student-teacher ratio seems to be very important for classroom teaching. Hiring more faculties could help improve the situation.

More PG subject should be started

1.Authority should be careful about more attendance of the students in doing classes. 2.Tutorial classes be conducted regularly. 3.Reading habit of the students be increased sincerely. 4. Group discussion may be introduced on the contents discussed.

Nothing

more publications and research activities should be undertaken

Authority should introduce some extra curricular activities in college regularly and ask students to participate in those activities as per their individual choice. Especially, performing art may be promoted largely in the college so that students get practical benefit in their lives from such practice of performing
