Report Regarding Experiential Learning for the academic session 2021-2022

As educators, faculties in English Department purposefully engaged with students in direct experience and focused reflection in order to increase knowledge, develop skills, and clarify values. Preparing wall magazine (ORACLE), online e-magazine, seminars by students, poetry workshops, creative writings, group discussions, debates and extempores are such activities that students generally go through. English Department has a Book-club named "Between the Lines" which also engages students in activities that help students receive direct experiences. Our students also take part in activities and competitions organised by other Institutions and have proved themselves to be successful and earn a name for the department and also for the College. Film screening is one of the regular activities within the Department, especially films that are related to syllabus and also those films that are relatable. They enjoy watching these films, can relate and connect to the discussions prior to it and also take part in thorough discussion after the screening which help them understand not only the text in question but also the other contexts.

Sample brochure photographs of the workshop on eco poetry and the wall magazine inauguration program. Students have actively participated in the eco-poetry workshop and presented papers, through which they have learnt important lessons on the theme of ecology and crisis. The wall magazine of this year is an attempt to understand the scope and dimensions of war through literature. Students have actively participated in the process of preparing the magazine thus gaining new perspectives on the relation between war and literature.
