EVENT NAME: A TWO DAY WORKSHOP ON VISUAL SOCIOLOGY ORGANISED JOINTLY BY IQAC AND DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY IN COLLABORATION WITH NORTH BENGAL ST. XAVIER'S COLLEGE on 3rd and 4th JUNE, 2022.

OBJECTIVES: The main objective behind this workshop was to generate awareness among the students with the ongoing social phenomenon which was shown in the form of broadcasting documentation.

EVENT SUMMARY: The program was started at St. Xavier's College on 3rd June and ended at Surya Sen College on 4th June. In this workshop Shri Sourav Sarker, acclaimed Filmmaker, Director and Social Educator was invited to show his documentary. The documentary "Anoochcharito" on childhood mental health was shown on 3rd June. Documentary "Nibhritochari" on ageing and also "The Humane Judicature" on public interest litigation and judicial activism in India were shown on 4th June. Documentary is an integral part of visual Sociology. After the end of the film there was interactive session every day.

Likewise as mentioned in the objectives of the program, the presented documentation have the potential to develop awareness among students.

It provides the students, an exposure to the sociological topic through the film, motivating them for generating further research - interest on the topic.

The program provides the students, a learning experience on the topic, through a case study on the topic, as depicted in the film. The experience gained through the film and its analysis, will help the students to apply the same in their thought processes and practical implementations/research/higher studies etc. in future.

Apart from the academic learning, the film and lecture will also grow social empathy on the crisis shown in the film, and make the students more conscious citizens.

College students attend workshop on 'Visual Sociology'

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
SILIGURI, 3 JUNE

The department of Sociology of North Bengal St Xavier's College and Surya Sen Mahavidyalaya jointly organised a two-day workshop on "Visual Sociology".

The workshop that started at the NBSXC on 3 June ended at Surya Sen College in Siliguri today.

On the first day, Fr Dr Lalit P Turkey, the NBSXC Principal, welcomed everyone and emphasised on the significance of such collaborative programmes.

Dr Aparna Chatterjee, the convener of the workshop, focused on the importance of developing analytical power among students and various ways of seeing.

On the second day, Dr Pranab Kr Mishra, the Principal of Surya Sen College, spoke about the new scopes of the subject, while Pranja Paramita Sarkar, the joint-convener of the workshop, thanked everyone and wished for more such collaborative programmes.

Sourav Sarkar, a nationally acclaimed film maker and social educator, screened three documentary films, where he gave visual analysis of films on childhood mental health, ageing and public interest litigation and judicial activism in India.

"A group of around 100 students and teachers of both the colleges actively participated in the innovative workshop and marked it as a fruitful one," an NBSXC official said today.
